

CRS SELF CERTIFICATION

Tax Residency for the purposes of the Common Reporting Standard

We are required under legislation to collect information from our members in relation to their tax status, in particular details to your country of tax residence and tax identification number (TIN), where you are tax resident in another country.

This information is being sought for the purposes of meeting our reporting obligations under the Common Reporting Standard (CRS), as provided for by Section 891F of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997. The information required to be reported under the CRS includes name, address, TIN, account number, account balance and payments on the account. This is provided to the Revenue Commissioners and may be exchanged with another Competent Tax Authority in your country of tax residence. Only data that is legally required to be reported will be provided to the Revenue Commissioners. Further information on the CRS and reporting obligations can be found at www.revenue.ie or you can contact Revenue directly at aeoi@revenue.ie
